

Integral pinching in conformal geometry and rigidity

Zindine DJADLI

Université de Grenoble

In this talk we will present some rigidity results on manifolds satisfying an integral pinching condition. This leads to the resolution of some fully nonlinear equation in order to produce a "good" metric in the given conformal class.