

Global aspects of integrable surface geometry

Franz PEDIT

University of Tübingen

We will discuss the relevance of the spectral curve construction for conformally immersed tori to global problems in surface geometry and indicate how to extend these ideas to conformally immersed surfaces of arbitrary genus.