

On Nurowski's conformal structure

Katja SAGERSCHNIG

University of Vienna

It has been observed by P. Nurowski that a generic rank two distribution in dimension five naturally determines a conformal structure on the manifold. In this talk, we introduce the notion of a generalized contact form and the associated generalized Reeb field for a generic rank two distribution in dimension five. We present a construction of a metric from Nurowski's conformal class in terms of these.